First Annual Sale of Scotch Shorthorn Cattle

To Be Held at

ASHBOURNE FARMS
PROSPECT, KENTUCKY

WEDNESDAY
JUNE 13, 1951

Ashbourne Farms is on U. S. 42, twenty-five miles Northeast of Louisville.

Hal Longley, Sale Mgr., 16 S. Locust St., Aurora, Illinois

Please bring this Catalog with you to the Sale

In the lot at Ashbourne Farms. These eight heifers will all be sold in this sale.

INFORMATION

Location . . . The sale will be held at Ashbourne Farms, Prospect, Kentucky. Ashbourne farms is located on U. S. 42, twenty-five miles northeast of Louisville. U. S. 42 is the main highway between Louisville and Cincinnati. The sale will begin at 12:30 P.M. Central Standard Time, Wednesday, June 13.

Guarantee . . . All cattle in this sale will be sold under the standard guarantee endorsed by the American Shorthorn Breeders' Association. Certificates of registry and transfer will be furnished with each lot sold. Shipment will be made as soon as possible after the close of the sale without trouble to the purchasers, but at their risk of loss or injury.

The Blue Grass Futurity . . . The National Blue Grass Futurity Show and Sale will be held in Louisville, June 11 and 12. We will be glad to assist in combining shipments with purchases made in that sale or other June sales.

Health . . . All the cattle in this sale have been tested for T.B. and Bangs within thirty days of the sale. Interstate health charts will be delivered to the buyer upon settlement for the cattle. All of the females bred as Ashbourne, Sutherland, and Brown-Forman Experimental Farm have been pretested clean and calfhood vaccinated for Bangs under government supervision.

Headquarters . . . Sale headquarters will be the Brown Hotel, Louisville, Kentucky, and the Ashbourne Inn, LaGrange, Kentucky. Transportation will be provided from each hotel. We urge visitors to make their reservations early.

Transportation . . . Louisville is easy to reach by any mode of transportation from any direction. It is centrally located for buyers from North, South, East and West.

Mail Bids . . . Those unable to attend the sale may send bids to the following: Hal Longley or Don Longley, The Shorthorn World, 16 South Locust St., Aurora, Illinois; Clinton K. Tomson, American Shorthorn Breeders Association, 7 Dexter Park Avenue, Chicago, 9, Illinois; Ed Huff, Breeder-Stockman, Warrenton, Virginia; W. E. Wiedeburg, The Kentucky Farmer, Louisville, 2, Kentucky. The auctioneer will be J. E. Halsey, Des Moines, Iowa.

Visit The Farms . . . You are cordially invited to visit any of the farms before or during the week of the sale. You will enjoy seeing the dams of the sale entries and the stock bulls that head the herds.

Terms . . . The terms of the sale are cash.

sales will prove profitable for their new owners and will advance the cause of an improved livestock agriculture.

Kentucky is a natural beef cattle habitat. Its soil, of a limestone base, produces a nutritious blue grass ideal for beef cattle development. Like the farmers of other regions, Kentuckians are learning that pasture and efficient utilization of roughages is more profitable than inefficient row cropping and consequent erosion.

HE FIRST annual "Browns of Kentucky" Sale marks a milestone in the plans that were carefully laid at the outset of our entry into the Shorthorn business. It is the desire and firm belief of the owners of Ashbourne, Sutherland and Brown-Forman Experimental farms that the cattle from this and future

Kentucky is a natural center for Shorthorn seed stock improvement. Its Shorthorn history dates to 1785 with the Patton importations. Recent history provides a more clear idea of Kentucky's role in the future of our breed. Much of the credit for this can be given The Kentucky Shorthorn Breeders' Association whose recent state sales have been second to none. It is our aim, through these annual sales, to provide further impetus towards the goal of retaining for Kentucky the name "cradle of the breed."

Two factors were uppermost in our minds in the establishment of The Browns of Kentucky herds . . . the quality of the cattle and the quality of the men who would direct the farm operations. The selection of Dan Cox as manager of Sutherland Farms was the first step in this direction. As the eastern field representative for the American Shorthorn Breeders' Association he was instrumental in the establishment of many of the best herds of that area. Wallace Campbell, manager of the Brown-Forman Experimental Farm, needs no introduction to the industry. As a manager and part owner of Maxwalton Farms he developed one of the breed's greatest nurseries. In Dan Cox and Wallace Campbell, we not only have managers of proven ability, but men revered and respected by all who know them.

Several of the females in the Ashbourne herd in a pasture with Prince William 15th.

Raymond Wilborn, who is the manager of Ashbourne farms, fits ideally into this pattern. He is assisted by Harold Schroeder, herdsman, a young man who has proved his ability as a good cattleman.

We have also been highly pleased that many members of the Brown-Forman organization have felt that the farms were also partly their "babies". Among these is Jim King, a young executive with a livestock background, who is developing an ever-widening circle of friends in the business and who is enjoying every minute of it.

The stock bulls in service are described elsewhere in this catalog. It is sufficient to say that in Sni-A-Bar Randolph, Prince William 15th, and Hickories Ransom 9th we have sires that have lived up to their illustrious show records. We have endeavored to select our females with the greatest care. Although each herd is operated as a separate unit, the herd bulls are interchanged.

This year's sale is made more attractive because it is being held on the day following the Blue Grass International Shorthorn Futurity Show & Sale, an event sponsored by the State of Kentucky to promote Kentucky's great potential as a seed stock center.

We sincerely hope that you will be with us.

George Garvin Brown and Sutherland All-Steak, grand champion junior yearling steer over all breeds
at the 1950 International Live Stock Exposition.

Kenneth Reed, Woodford County, Kentucky, and Beacon's Pride, his grand champion steer over 1500 entries of all breeds at the 1950 Louisville Fat Stock Show. This steer was made available to Kenneth through a program of the Brown-Forman Experimental Farm.

Part of the "Brown's of Kentucky" program is to make available to boys and girls the right kind of steers for junior club work. Since the butcher's block is the ultimate test, we feel that this program provides a perfect method to measure the performance of our purebred productions. We are pleased that several steers from this project have already attained high honors.

It does make a difference where you buy and from whom you buy. The fact that the Browns bought nothing but the very choicest for the foundation of their three herds and the further fact that the calves from these herds have been consistent winners in American showings should convince anyone that the type and quality of the cattle in this first annual sale will be right. Add to this the fact that the owners and managers are held in highest repute in the business world as well as in the Shorthorn fraternity and there can be no doubt about this sale being a safe place to buy.

Those who study this catalog will note that the footnotes contain only information relative to breeding dates, production records and bloodlines. Although the owners have made the request that the cattle be allowed to speak for themselves, I do not hesitate in the assertion that those who buy them will secure an ideal combination of individuality and ancestry.

Ashbourne . . . A Grand Old Shorthorn Name

Arthur McArthur, Oklahoma A&M, herdsman, with Ashbourne Orange, grand champion steer over all breeds at the 1937 International Live Stock Exposition.

Ashbourne is not a new name to the Shorthorn industry. It was the name selected by Hon. A. C. Shallenberger for his famous herd in Nebraska. Governor Shallenberger was the paternal grandparent of Mrs. W. L. Lyons Brown. We all remember Ashbourne Orange, grand champion steer over all breeds at the 1937 International Livestock Show and sired by the Shallenberger bred bull, Ashbourne Standard. In the Ashbourne herd today are many direct descendants of the Shallenberger herd.

The late Hon. A. C. Shallenberger, famous statesman, agriculturist and Shorthorn cattle breeder.

The Ashbourne Entries . . .

The first twenty-seven lots in this sale are the entries of Ashbourne Farms, owned by W. L. Lyons Brown. Ten are sired by Prince William 15th, grand champion of the Eastern National, Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio State Fairs. Seven are sired by the twice International reserve champion Sni-A-Bar Randolph. Four are sired by Kalarama Commando, an excellent breeding bull, the get of which was acquired through the purchase of the well known Kalarama herd.

When you visit Ashbourne Farms, you will be impressed with the calves that are resulting from the Prince William 15th—Sni-A-Bar Randolph cross.

Sutherland All-Steak, grand champion Shorthorn steer at the 1950 International and first prize junior yearling steer over all breeds at this same show. He is a son of Hickories Ramson 9th, senior herd sire in the Sutherland herd. His dam, Maxwalton Miss Ramsden 3rd, is also the dam of lot 36.

George Garvin Brown, owner of Sutherland Farms.

Daniel T. Cox, manager of Sutherland Farms.

The Sutherland Entries . . .

The Sutherland entries have been produced through the matings of the best with the best. The twelve head include five by Sni-A-Bar Randolph, five by Hickories Ransom 9th, and one by Prince William 15th. Sutherland Farms are located closest to Louisville, one farm being on U S 42, twelve miles northeast of town. We hope that you will inspect the herd. We feel that you will approve the careful selections that have been made in its foundation.

The Entries From Brown-Forman Experimental Farms

At the Brown-Forman Experimental Farm located between Versailles and Frankfort, Kentucky, cattlemen will find much of interest. Here Wallace Campbell, former partner-manager of the famous Maxwalton Farms, is assembling a select herd of outstanding producers. A number of the members of the old Maxwalton herd are included in this and the other Brown herds. You will find, also a series of feeding and rate-of-gain tests being conducted. The steer feeding building at this establishment is one of the largest of its kind in the world.

The "Super-Sol" Gang . . .

All the members of the Feed Division of Brown-Forman are keenly interested in the purebred Shorthorn herds. No one man ever made more friends among breeders in a shorter span of years than the late Evarts Speed, Jr., formerly the head of the Grain Department and the Feed Division, who succumbed to a heart attack last year. We deeply regret that he cannot be with us. There would have been no one more pleased on this occasion.

If you would like to visit the plant to see "Super-Sol" being made, we will be happy to arrange such a trip.

Claude Middleton of the Brown-Forman feed division and the late Harry Straus.

Evarts Speed Jr.

Thomas Owen, sales manager of the feed division.
